The purpose of this blanket order is to ensure that every dependent child in an out-of-home placement is given the opportunity to obtain a library card. Accordingly, DPSS is ordered to make the best efforts in assisting every dependent child in an out-of-home placement to obtain a library card under the Riverside County Library System's program for foster youth.

It is further ordered that the social worker will provide information to the caregiver and child, where age appropriate, on how to obtain a library card.
