PETITIONER: RESPONDENT:	CASE NUMBER:
GESTATIONAL SURROGACY PARENTAGE JUDGMENT CHECKLIST

If a case does not technically meet all of the requirements of Family Code § 7962, then under Family Code §7962(f)(2), the court is not prevented from entering a parentage order, so long as the parties have provided sufficient proof entitling them to the relief sought. However, in this case, the parties have complied with all the requirements of California Family Code §7962 for the reasons stated below:

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. 7962(a)(1) The parties signed the written gestational surrogacy agreement on _____

2. 7962(a)(2) The (child was/children were) created through in vitro fertilization using Ova from _____ and sperm from _____

3. 7962(a)(3) The gestational surrogacy agreement identifies the Intended Parent(s): _____

4. 7962(a)(4) The gestational surrogacy agreement discloses how the intended parents will cover the medical expenses of the gestational carrier and of the newborn or newborns;

5. 7962(b) Before signing the gestational surrogacy agreement, the parties to the agreement were represented by separate independent licensed attorneys of their choosing (See the parties' declarations);

6. 7962(c) The gestational surrogacy agreement was signed in the presence of a notary or witnessed by the equivalent method of affirmation in the jurisdiction where executed on _____ ;

7. 7962(d) The parties to the gestational surrogacy agreement did not undergo an embryo transfer or commence injectable medication in preparation for an embryo transfer until after the agreement was fully executed as required by Family Code § 7962 (b) and (c); | 8. 7962(e) A copy of the gestational surrogacy agreement has been lodged with this court;

9. 7962(e) The parentage action is allowed to be filed before birth, and may be filed in the Riverside Superior Court pursuant to Family Code § 7962 (e), because Riverside County is the county where the:
a. <input type="checkbox"/> child is anticipated to be born.
b. <input type="checkbox"/> intended parent(s) reside.
c. <input type="checkbox"/> surrogate resides.
d. <input type="checkbox"/> assisted reproduction agreement for gestational carriers is executed.
e. <input type="checkbox"/> medical procedures pursuant to the agreement were performed.

10. 7962(e) The parties have attested, under penalty of perjury and to the best of their knowledge and belief, as to their compliance with Family Code § 7962 in entering into the assisted reproductive agreement;

11. 7962(i) The assisted reproduction agreement for gestational carriers has been executed in accordance with Family Code § 7962 and is presumably valid;

12. 7962(f)(2) Upon petition of any party to a properly executed assisted reproduction agreement for gestational carriers, the court shall issue a judgment or order establishing a parent-child relationship, whether pursuant to Family Code § 7630 or otherwise. Upon motion by a party to the assisted reproduction agreement for gestational carriers, the matter shall be scheduled for hearing before a judgment or order is issued. |
