STIPULATION AND ORDER APPROVING OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER PRO TEMPORE

1. All reporters who are not on the Court-Approved List of Official Reporters Pro Tempore must complete this stipulation in advance of the proceedings. Stipulations must be filed with the court at least 5 days prior to the hearing, though the reporter may wait until the day of the hearing to sign the Stipulation.

2. Reporter Information

3. Constitutional Oath of Office

I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance of the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California; that I take this obligation freely without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties which I am about to enter.

4. Realtime

It is the court's expectation that appointed reporters will provide realtime reporting to the court upon request, and in conformity with applicable department rules. Use of realtime improves the court's ability to respond to counsels' questions, keep track of evidentiary and other rulings, and address jury questions, if any. The court presumes the parties approve the use of realtime absent their affirmative statement or court order stating otherwise. The parties request realtime reporting.  The parties decline realtime reporting.
