RIVERSIDE COUNTY:

The Riverside Superior Court is pleased to announce that the judges of the Court have elected Judge Judith C. Clark to serve as its next Presiding Judge. Judge Clark was appointed to the bench by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger in 2005. She has served as the Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Division, and has done assignments in criminal, family law, and juvenile dependency departments. She is currently the Assistant Presiding Judge and presides over the Domestic Violence Court in the Riverside Hall of Justice.

"Judge Clark has been a valuable member of our leadership team with experience in many aspects of the justice system. Her knowledge and deep commitment to providing fair access to justice for all persons will serve our community well, especially during a time of continuing challenges brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic." Judge John Monterosso-outgoing Presiding Judge.

Judge Clark will become only the fourth woman to serve as the Riverside Superior Court's Presiding Judge in its 130-year history. Judge Clark will begin her two-year term on January 1, 2023.
