NOTICE

FAMILY LAW RESUMES MANDATORY SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE AND FEE WAIVER HEARINGS IN-PERSON

Please be advised that effective June 2021, the court will resume in-person hearings for Mandatory Settlement Conferences and Fee Waiver Hearings as follows:

Indio and Blythe – Effective June 1, 2021.

Hemet and Riverside – Effective June 15, 2021.

For hearings that are already scheduled, the court dates will remain the same. However, you will also receive a Notice of the in-person hearing with the date, time and location.

For more information regarding court hearings (telephonic and in-person appearances) and limited public service hours please visit our website at www.riverside.courts.ca.gov or click here.

Please be advised that the clerk's office is open for essential services only or you must have a case on calendar to enter the courthouse. By General Order (2020-21) of the Presiding Judge, all persons entering a courthouse shall, at all times, wear a face covering and maintain six feet of physical distance from all other persons. Please note, the Sheriff's Department will turn away anyone not wearing a face covering prior to security screening.
